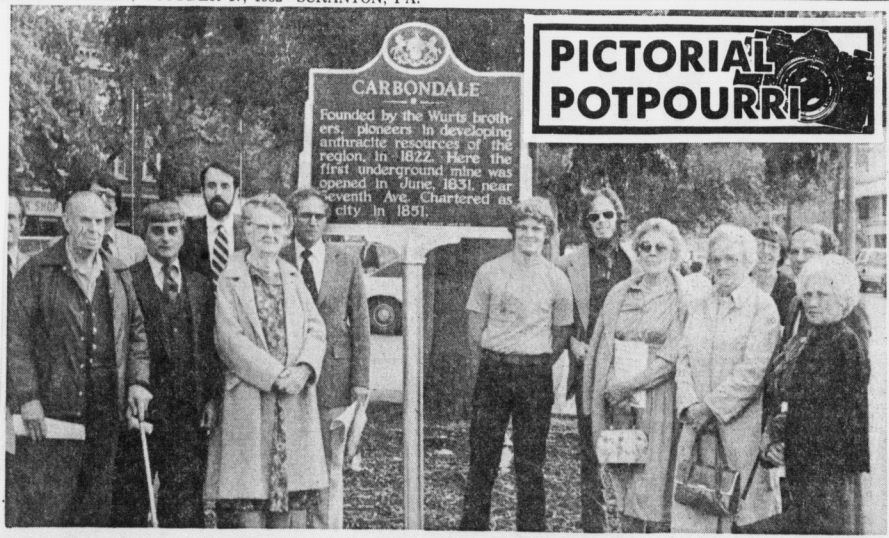
PICTORIAL POTPOURRI



CARBONDALE
Founded by the Wurts brothers, pioneers in developing anthracite resources of the region, in 1822. Here the first underground mine was opened in June, 1831, near Seventh Ave. Chartered as city in 1851.

State officials join Upvalley residents at installation and dedication ceremonies for new historical marker that was recently placed outsied Carbondale City Hall. From left: state Rep. Frank Serafini, Paul Collins, David Baum, Joseph Pascoe, S. Robert Powell, Edith Gardner, the Rev. Claude Pullis, John Buberniak, Robert Tomaine, Nancy Loftus, Mary Louise Dearie Mrs. Esther Pullis, state Sen. Robert Mellow and councilwoman Charlotte Moro[illegible]